1. I give you me. I perfect man, not; God, surrendered to be, simply surrendered to be me who I am writing you that you are I am -- he is us that we are in surrender to being what we are, were, and are again. Now here and there we are one seamless, son of a bitch no longer, we are the heir inheriting all, not; we are the father son and spirit that we have been taught are three, but we are one -- one is us. We are the seamless one if we will be, it. Together we are one, will be one, I decree it, declare it, proclaim it, teach it, package it in many courses so that it can be eaten, and enjoyed not always, because it is tough "meat" sometimes, not; but it is "ripping" the flesh from the flesh-not so that the many-fleshed become not so. And simple not always in its approach, it is effective, and takes effort tenacity diligence and time to procure the elements of me accurately de-elementing all else to be matterless, including the matterlessness'er who effectively takes off the flesh and puts on Christ for all that he has is Christ and Christ his being, for there is only one, and all of that one is all of us surrendered to be, who he is, and one, being one the one that all of us are, that truly is one -- the one we all were, who before the earth began, ate at God's table, for we were there all the time, for we were God. Amen.

2. See what I have said and altered nature not, but nature was who? Un-altering nature, not, but who altered nature and what nature became what, and whose nature became mine? Or did mine inject mine into mind that I thought was not mine calling it flesh-man? I love you all.

3. Giving you me I have day after day brought you my words these words, five and a half years now, almost six complete. Into are the "six" who will be me now first -ly? And lastly not, or will all be one?

4. Coming into me all will be one - who I am is the one - who all will be - me I am the one complete wholly naturally God, for that is my first estate; fallen not again is my name now for I am risen, will be risen, risen I am! Holy! Excited I am! Delivering the saints I am to I am. Being them -- being them real -- and natural -ly I do now with love my first name Theodore is. Me and loving me to be - who all I am, I am all of you. Surrendered to be so, we now rise. Together as one, or being one? The difference is tremendous and significant, and only one who is me will be me, and significance'd will be one who all one are -- one and the same -- I am I am.

5. Knowing it now I rise - tremendous blessing upon the earth. He who knows me is me. Has no other concerns, not; for the concern of me one myself, who know not me as myself, who Creator are and is the me. Perfectly made whole. I am rise now.

Earned you commission rights, not; but given you publishing as a hobby, not; but publish you do now many papers on me as you write your thoughts-made whole, by coming into writing-me's-ville a'properly so about the real that I am, how came about, and all that is the real that I am experiencing, and experience I do recommend to you all that you take become and establish the me'sville that Israel is really and truly "there". I am, ye also be me, where I am. There I am.

In these words, the forth-bringer is the writer of me who see I am made whole -- the writing process works -- for I work it -- I diligence am about my studies now, I leave else alone; Elsa I become not again. I have seen the light -- I am it -- whole complete replete is my name writing daily many do now about me who the real one is and I one many through these words of no sorrow as they write "no sorrow" on their foreheads, daily, by writing me these words- what I am saying- be made whole writing what I am saying. Be made whole through these words of no sorrow as they become your words, no sorrowing in sorrowland anymore by he who will be made whole writing my words daily coming into my temple be made replete God of all I am knowing it and cast these words not into sorrow's bin again, placing them, place them in your heart by writing them solidly there in your temple my Temple that one temple is now knowing it; self controls no more, but love does, having become it, first-person, first personing me in these words I will you as you write them to me in me -- they are -- in me! Don't you see-that -yet?!?

9. I give you control of me, not; I give you me -- without control.
